Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why we collect your personal information and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

If you have any questions about this notice please talk to your form tutor or your Head of School.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that the School holds about you and which identifies you.

This includes information such as your name, date of birth and address as well as things like exam results, medical details and behaviour records. We may also hold information such as your religion or ethnic group for the purposes of supporting you in School. CCTV, photos and video recordings of you are also personal information.

Where we get your personal data from and who we share it with

We get your personal data from lots of different sources. For example, your teachers, parents, your old schools and any future school, other pupils and their parents. We might also get information from the government e.g. the local authority might give us information that we need to look after you.

Sometimes, we will also share information with these people and organisations, for example, we will tell your parents about how well you are doing at school.

Below, we give lots of examples of where we get your personal data from, and who we share it with.

Why we use your personal data and our lawful bases for doing so

The School uses your personal data in order to:

1. Teach you and other pupils.
2. Make sure that you and others are behaving properly.
3. Look after you and other people e.g. your friends.
4. Make sure that we comply with the law, are well managed and to protect our interests.
5. Advertise the School and tell people about the School and what we do here e.g. we may use photos of you in our prospectus, on our website or on social media.

We can only use your personal data if we have a good reason to do so. This is about having a "lawful basis" to use your personal data. Our lawful bases are as follows:

- Legitimate interests: This means that the School is using your personal data where this is necessary for the School's legitimate interests or someone else's legitimate interests.
 - Specifically, the School has a legitimate interest in:
 - educating and looking after its pupils;
 - complying with its agreement with your parents for you to be at the School;
 - investigating if something has gone wrong;
 - promoting and protecting the School; and
 - making the School even better.

- This lawful basis only applies where our legitimate interests are not overridden by your interests, rights and freedoms. Legitimate interests applies to all of the 5 purposes listed above.
- Public task: This allows the School to use your personal data where doing so is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or to exercise one of our functions or powers as a school. This basis applies to purposes 1, 2, 3 and 4 above. For example, when we teach and look after you.
- Legal obligation: The School might need to use your personal data to comply with a legal obligation. For example, to report a concern about your wellbeing to Children's Services. Occasionally we may have a legal obligation to share your personal data with third parties such as the court.
- Vital interests: Although this won't happen very often, we may need to use your personal data to protect you or someone else. For example, to prevent someone from being seriously harmed or killed.

The section below contains more information about our purposes for using your personal data and the lawful bases.

Our purposes and lawful bases in more detail

This section gives you more information about why the School uses your personal data. Also where we get it from, who it is shared with, and which lawful bases apply. It does not say anything different to the sections above but goes into more detail.

We have used a colour coded system so that you can see which lawful bases we are relying on for each of the purposes described at paragraphs 1 to 54 below.

The letters highlighted in different colours below refer to the lawful bases. So LI means legitimate interests, PI means public task, LO means lawful obligation and VI means vital interests. So (LI, PI) means that we are relying on both legitimate interests and public task for that purpose.

- 1 The School's primary reason for using your personal data is to provide you and other pupils with an education (LI, PI).
- 2 The School will also use your personal data to safeguard and promote your welfare and the welfare of others (for example, so that we can look after you if you are hurt) (LI, PI, VI).
- 3 We use information about you during the admissions process e.g. when marking your entrance exams and learning more about you from your parents before you join the School (LI, PI).
- 4 We may let your old school know if you have been offered a place at the School. This is because they have a legitimate interest in finding out what happens to their former pupils as this will help them support their other pupils when they leave the school (LI).
- 5 The admissions forms which your parents complete give us lots of personal data about you, such as, your name, contact details, disabilities, any particular difficulties you have with work, hobbies and interests, medical information (such as information about an allergy) and family circumstances (LI, PI).

This policy applies to all members of our school community, including boarders and those in our EYFS setting.

Sending information to other countries

When the School sends personal data outside of the UK, we have to consider if the other country has the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. Some countries are considered by the UK Government to have adequate rules and this includes all of the European Union and some other countries, such as, New Zealand, Norway, Switzerland and Argentina.

The School sends your personal data to countries with adequate rules. For example we may:

- go on a trip to France and share your personal data with activity providers and the hotel; or
- store your personal data in cloud computer storage with servers in Ireland.

This policy applies to all members of our school community, including boarders and those in our EYFS setting.

- store your personal data in cloud computer storage with servers in the USA

We will provide you with additional details about where we are sending your personal data, whether the country has an adequacy finding and if not the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice.

If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Privacy Officer.

For how long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal data for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after you. We will keep a lot of information after you have left the School, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In some cases we may keep your personal data for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be found on our website here www.hlc.org.uk/privacy.

What decisions can you make about your personal data?

Data protection legislation gives you a number of rights regarding your personal data. Your rights are as follows:

- Correction: if personal data the School holds about you is incorrect or incomplete you can ask us to correct it.

Further information and guidance

Your form tutor can answer any questions which you might have.

This policy applies to all members of our school community, including boarders and those in our EYFS setting.

Like other organisations we need to keep your personal data safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and most importantly - treat the information we get fairly.

Please speak to your form tutor or another member of staff if:

- you would like to exercise any of your rights listed above; or
- you would like us to update the information we hold about you; or
- you have any concerns about how your personal data is used or shared.

If we ask you to tell us something and you do not do so then this may make it more difficult for us to teach and look after you and others.

You have a right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ico.org.uk). The ICO is the data protection regulator which means that they enforce the rules that we have to obey.

If you have any concerns about how we have handled your personal data, we would kindly ask that you contact us in the first instance before you speak to the ICO so that we have an opportunity to put things right.
